

Entrepreneurship policy report summary

Title	See the Opportunities and Make Them Work – strategy for entrepreneurship in education and training 2004-2008
Publish date	2004
Country and publisher	Norway Ministry of Education and Research, Ministry of Trade and Industry and Ministry of Local Government and Regional Development
Type of report	Action plan The report has been prepared to promote entrepreneurship in education.
Main message	The report identifies four specific measures, which will help to promote entrepreneurship in education.
Governments policy targets/goals	The education system shall contribute to productive work and innovation by encouraging acquisition of knowledge and skills, enjoyment and mastery of work, independence and community feeling in pupils, students and teachers at all levels, and development of a culture supporting entrepreneurship.
Definition (How are they quantified?)
Focus/policy areas	Focus on entrepreneurship at all levels of the educational system and young people
Implemented/suggested policies	Norway has introduced a new reform called the Knowledge Promotion Reform and it consists of three parts: the Core Curriculum, the Quality Framework and the Subject Curricula.
Key findings	The report identified specific measures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - that apply to all levels of education. The Norwegian government wants to create better knowledge base, entrepreneurship conference, exchange of experiences and dissemination of good practice, collaboration with organizations and networks, reinforcing international collaboration and inter-ministerial reference group to follow-up on the strategy. - that apply to primary, lower and upper secondary education and training. At this point the government's goal is to strengthen collaboration between school and cultural life, collaboration between schools and local business and industry, development of active pupils working methods within entrepreneurship, establishment of the new programme subject Entrepreneurship and Enterprise Development, measures to reduce drop-out in upper secondary education and training - that apply to in higher education. Better collaboration between the business sector and the university and college sector, the "Doctorate in Business" scheme, research on entrepreneurship in education, collaboration with students and collaboration between higher education institutions within culture/art subjects and cultural institutions/business are the government's measures in higher education. - that apply to teacher training. The government's measures are to make establishment of courses of study within entrepreneurship, development of competence in the general teaching programme and competence development for teachers in the primary, lower and secondary education and training.

--	---

http://www.regjeringen.no/upload/KD/Vedlegg/Grunnskole/Strategiplaner/See_the_opportunities_and_make_them_work_2204-2008.pdf